

Please do not allow LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translators. K-Love provides a valuable service to my community through positive, active programming. Losing this broadcast would have a negative impact on many people and eliminate a much needed exposure to wholesome value systems. The public is interested and concerned about the minimal stations providing encouraging words in this day of constant stress and violence.